, we require that our applicants have a concentration in Children, Youth, and Families.

. If you have a different concentration, you must complete the "Part Two"

, if you've passed the CBEST once, you do not have to retake it. Simply provide a copy of your passing scores in your application packet to fulfill the requirement.

, we do not accept first-year internship hours of any kind.

, but only if they took place at an approved PPSC site under the supervision of someone with an MSW and a PPSC in both School Social Work and Child Welfare and Attendance. To expedite the process, complete a "Part Two" application and please ask your approved field instructor to complete the "PPSC Final Skills Evaluation" and the "Required Activities Checklist," both to be included in your application packet.

, depending on the experience, and if your supervisor had the appropriate PPSC in School Social Work and Child Welfare and Attendance

, depending on whether you were supervised by someone with an MSW and a PPSC in School Social Work and Child Welfare and Attendance. Please complete a "Part Two" application so that we may evaluate your experience.

, hours are completed in a public school setting. Few, if any public schools hold class on Saturdays.

, on rare occasions, some of the hours you complete in an afterschool setting could potentially correspond to our program requirements. However, anyone wanting to count afterschool hours must contact our office first to receive approval.

, but you must have at least one day a week to devote to your internship position. Doing so will allow you to complete your clinic clock hour requirement in two years.

, none of our internship opportunities are paid.

, but your potential supervisor must have an MSW and a PPSC in School Social Work and Child Welfare and Attendance. You must provide us with the school name and district name, along with the email and phone number of your potential supervisor so that we may contact him or her to ensure that your experiences will fulfill our PPSC program requirements.

, we will help you find a qualified school site and PPSC supervisor.

, unfortunately, no financial aid is available to those in the PPSC program.

, if you ask us to evaluate your placement experience(s) towards the 600 hours requirement, you must pay the $55.00 application fee.

. Even if you have a PPSC from another state, there are certain California-specific requirements that you must meet before we will recommend you to the state for a California PPSC. In order to meet these requirements, you must enroll in our Post-MSW program and pay the $1500.00 program fee.
